

You do not qualify for UI benefits because no benefit year can be established as a result of the initial claim filed on 12/27/21.

This computation is based on wage information reported to the department by you and your employers for the base period 07/01/20 through 06/30/21. See the back of this form for further information.

Check this computation carefully. Was an employer left out? Is there any other error? If so, call a claims specialist immediately.
